ART RULES
KIWANIS CLUB OF MACON
2018 ART & TALENT SHOWCASE

PLEASE NOTE THAT SOME OF THE RULES DIFFER FROM PAST YEARS

1. Entry & Identification:

Students are limited to three entries per participant. Teachers are limited to thirty entries.

Please provide the following information securely attached to the back or bottom of your artwork. The absence of this information may result in your art not being displayed and judged.

Participant's Name; School; Grade; Category (painting, drawing, pottery, photography, etc.), Title (This will help identify the artwork.); Clearly identify top (for hanging pieces) or front (for table display) of artwork.

2. Media / Preparation:

The following media are permitted for inclusion in the art contest: drawing, painting, photography, and sculpture. All hanging art shall have Velcro-type fastener already attached in a manner to support the weight of the art. The hard loop side of the Velcro is what should be attached. (Note: attaching the Velcro with hot-glue tends to fail.) Heavy wooden or metal frames are discouraged. If you enter any sculpture please provide an appropriate stand or table for display. It is the student's responsibility for the art to be ready for display. If these conditions are not met, student's art may not be displayed and judged.

3. Subject Matter:

The Kiwanis Club of Macon Art & Talent Showcase Committee reserves the right to exclude any piece of art it deems unsuitable or objectionable for this event. The decision of the committee is final.

4. Sale of Artwork:

A student may offer his or her artwork for sale to the public during the showcase. By participating in the showcase, however, each student acknowledges that the Kiwanis Club will play no role in brokering any such sale or in ensuring the transmission of any pricing or contact information between a student and a prospective purchaser. If a student intends to offer his or her artwork for sale during the showcase, he or she must include the pricing and contact information on this application, where indicated. Failure to do so will result in that information not being displayed with the artwork. The pricing and contact information provided by the student will be displayed on the artwork only after the judges have completed judging the competition.

5. Delivery / Pick-up of Art for Display:

All art should be delivered to the McCorkle Music Building (see address above) between 3:00 and 5:00 p.m. on Friday, March 3, 2018. No entries will be accepted on the day of judging. Please plan to pick up your artwork after the winners are announced and viewing is complete following the completion of the talent show. The Kiwanis Club of Macon will not be responsible for artwork which is not picked up on the night of the Talent Show.

6. Notification of Art Winners:

Art winners will be notified by phone Saturday afternoon. Winners are encouraged to be present at the end of the Talent Competition so that they may be recognized.

7. Art Winner Eligible to Participate in Georgia District of Kiwanis Showcase

The first place winner of the Macon Kiwanis Art Showcase is eligible to participate in the Georgia District of Kiwanis 2018 Art & Music Showcase which will be held on April 28, 2018, at the Lee County High School in Leesburg, Georgia. The first place winner in the state competition will be awarded a scholarship in the amount of $3,500
