1ST STOP: DUNLUCE CASTLE

Visit Dunluce Castle and enjoy a tour whilst listening to Glenelg Club member, Sarah Tinney, as she provides the history of this historic building, the Macully family, the legend of the Brighton smugglers tunnels and South Australia’s first recorded shark fatality, Kitty Macully of Dunluce.

2ND STOP: KINGSTON HOUSE

Built in 1840, Kingston House is one of South Australia's oldest remaining houses. It is still being used today. The quiet beauty and hidden charm of the House and Reserve make it a favourite picnic spot for visitors.

Yet the Kingston Family were anything but quiet and tranquil. George Strickland Kingston and his son Charles Cameron Kingston were powerful figures in the political landscape of their time.

You will hear about the history of this beautiful home and enjoy Devonshire tea.
