

Kiwanis of Nashville Foundation

Donor privacy policy

Collecting and using personal information

The Kiwanis of Nashville Foundation collects personal information about its donors to be used solely for the purpose of conducting the following business activities:

- Fundraising
- Identifying prospective candidates for Kiwanis of Nashville Foundation's officer and director elections, committees, task forces and other assignments
- Communicating key organizational information for dissemination to club members

Privacy of donor information

To help protect your online privacy, the Kiwanis of Nashville Foundation keeps email addresses, telephone numbers, mailing addresses and other information secure by using password-protected areas and restricted access. Donor information is strictly confidential and is not shared outside the organization under any circumstances. Donors to the Kiwanis of Nashville Foundation can feel confident that their personal information will never be sold to another organization or vendor.

Reviewing and correcting personal information

You may contact the Kiwanis of Nashville Foundation to review the personal information we have collected from you, or to request corrections to your personal information:

The Kiwanis of Nashville Foundation
PO Box 22908
Nashville, TN 37202-2908

Phone number (U.S. and Canada only): 615-870-7040
Email: NashvilleKiwanis@yahoo.com

Adopted by the board of directors of the Kiwanis of Nashville Foundation on June 29, 2018
[Note: The above is suggested language to post on your foundation website in partial fulfillment of Better Business Bureau Wise Giving Alliance charity standards.]