RECENT MEETINGS

August 6 – The July Board Meeting was held in the Huntington Beach pavilion. Food catered by Leslie as usual. Jim Potter's Community Service Committee's report noted completion of the BAYarts Fuller House porch hand railing painting. 105 man hours were spent on that job with Bay Kiwanians and several kids, filling their community service obligations, doing the work. Following up on the Fuller House job Jim says they plan to do paint-up, fix-up and clean-up jobs at Lake Erie Nature and Science Center and at Huntington Playhouse in the future. Their work gains many friends for Kiwanis. Regarding member ship committee actions, Jim reported that postcards were sent to 19 prospective members inviting them to our August 27 social dinner at Bay Lodge. George Macdonald and Rhonda Schneider will review the history, activities and community projects of our club. That will be followed by Jim's letter reprising the foregoing. Kelly Applegate's Youth Services report noted their collection of items at August meetings for Provident House. Her e-mail to all members described items needed, prices and stores where available. She enlisted youths to assist with the Fuller House painting. Chet Monty's secretary's report was approved as read. Russ Bauknecht's treasurer's report noted the low balance in the Operating Fund account with expectation it will be replenished from Huntington Playhouse "9 to 5" income. Welfare Fund has a comfortable balance.

August 13 – Those Kiwanians and guests who were at the Lake Erie Crushers game at all Pro Freight Stadium in Avon enjoyed an eventful game with lots of scoring and skillful and faultless play. The Crushers won handily 11 to 4, which should not have been too surprising since they are now in first place in the Eastern Division of the Frontier League, having won their ninth game in a row.

Some Childbirth Humor

1. I told my mother I was going to have natural childbirth. She said "You've been taking drugs all your life. Why stop now?"
2. I was born by C section. That was the last time I had my mother's complete attention.

3. Doctor to parents of an ugly baby: "I charge $200 if it's a boy and $200 if it's a girl. Let's say this one's on the house.
4. I'm Catholic. When we were unpacking my mother found my diaphragm. I had to tell her it was a bathing cap for my cat.
