It's time now to give someone else the opportunity to present a new view to the Kiwanis-Gram.

At some point in the coming weeks the last edition of the current Kiwanis-Gram will be printed. I'm hoping there will be a new editor and a new Kiwanis-Gram at that time.

SoThey Say!

A SHOT OF WHISKEY' in the old west and a .45 cartridge for a six-gun both cost 12 cents. If a cowhand was low on cash he would often give the bartender a cartridge in exchange for a drink. This became known as a "shot" of whiskey.

"THE WHOLE NINE YARDS" - American fighter planes in WWII had machine guns that were fed by a belt of cartridges. The average plane held belts that were 27 feet (9 yards) long. If the pilot used up all his ammo he was said to have given it the whole "nine yards".
