An alternate meeting location has been planned for next week. Our current location at St. Clement's basement hall will be under renovation with a new tiled floor being installed.

The Children at Lakewood Lutheran School heard that we sing at our meetings and they wanted to come and sing for us. So, Principal and KCL member, Carolyn Potantus brought all classes, K-8th grade along to sing three songs for us. Included with each song were hand and arm motions. Entertaining to be sure! Maybe they could come back during our Christmas program and join in the sing along.

Meet the Trucks Report
By JOHN MUMMA

We had a highly successful service project today, Saturday, June 4th and with excellent public relations. With Kudos to the many volunteer members who interacted with parents and children. We gave away a RECORD 1400 books.

There was a big crowd at Meet the Trucks despite the overcast day and threat of rain. Mother Nature smiled down on us.

Also need to mention that the GARDEN looked great with the roses in full bloom.
