This N That From Last We Met!

Last week's meeting was a washout, well almost anyway. Following a deluge the previous day, our meeting place in the St. Clement's Church Hall was flooded to some extent and so our President Larry made arrangements to hold our meeting at Lakewood Presbyterian Church where we were promptly accommodated with a very pleasant meeting room. Upon arrival, tables, chairs, podium and microphone were all set up for us. During the meeting Tim Mohr, who along with Anna Bacho who have been elected to be our delegates to the 100th Anniversary Kiwanis International Convention in Indianapolis this coming week, presented an outline of the NINE proposed amendments to be considered by convention delegates. Among them was a proposal to increase the dues paid by clubs to K.I. per member by $10 per year. However this is not necessarily an increase in dues paid by each member to their club. Our Board of Directors has authorized our two delegates to vote their consciences following any discussion of the amendments at the convention. A computer link to all proposed amendments has been emailed to our membership.....It was noted that Carlyle Mossman, who has been noticeably absent of late, has been ill and would appreciate receiving cards.....The new 2015 Roster Booklet made its appearance. This is the 1st all in color Roster Book. There is a copy for each member only. Copies are not made public.....Perfect Attendance Tabs were presented to three or our members: Bob Phinney, 35 years, Anna Bacho, 26 years and John Huetter 13 years.....Last Wednesday our Membership Committee held a reception for potential new members at the Vosh in Lakewood. Eight of our members were on hand to welcome 5 potential members who were our attending guests. The time was spent socializing and telling the Kiwanis Story. Our Member Orientation Power Point presentation was shown which was narrated by Tim Mohr. Our members are encouraged to seek out prospective new members by telling friends and acquaintances their Kiwanis Story. Lakewood Kiwanis thanks Mickey Krivosh for the hospitality afforded us at the Vosh.
