Last week's Division 14 Lenten Breakfast ended seven weeks of the event and completed its 44th year.

As has been the custom Lakewood Kiwanis was the host club. The Speaker was Rev. Fr. Joseph Workman, Pastor of St. Clement and St. James Catholic Churches, Lakewood. Fr. Workman's topic concerned itself with showing our concern for one another and how we might communicate that concern.

Included in the morning's program was the singing of two hymns by the Lakewood Kiwanis Choir, conducted by Ray Goodrich and accompanied by Mike Wilson on the piano.

Following the morning's events it has been the custom, for many years, to remember those Kiwanians who have passed-on during the previous year by reading their names and extinguishing a candle representing their passing.
