Spotlight On.....

2016
Scholarships

As usual, determining the scholarship winners each year is not an easy task. Each application includes the student's education history through high school, their in-school extra activity involvements, sports, club activities, music and leadership rolls. It is amazing to see the extra curricular involvement with jobs, church, club and sports etc. It is a real challenge for the Scholarship Foundation's Board to, each year; select the winners of the six $10,000 scholarships.

The 2016 selections have been made and they include the following:

Christin R. Donahoe

Alexander L. Figueroa

Adam T. Giffels

John H. McDermott

David Kenneth Miller

Robert Sessions

Congratulations!

NO BIRTHDAYS THIS WEEK!

*

The attendance at the Friday Lunch Bunch meeting at the Waterbury Coach House varies from week to week but last week included (L-R) Tim Mohr, John Bulloch, Tom McDonough, Bill Beutel, Matt Rawlings, Kim, Jim Vine and Tom Kirsop. Kim has been an excellent "server" at the Coach House for 38 years.

President Ken Eberl, on right, congratulates Bill Beutel as he presents Bill with his 37 year Perfect Attendance Pin. Congratulations to Bill - we finally got it right!

The flower in Ken's lapel was just pinned on by President-elect Jim Trela as the club helped Ken celebrate his April 24, birthday.

Last week's speaker was to be John Kucinski of the Whole Foods Market in Rocky River, but do to a family emergency; John was unable to make it. We were very fortunate though to have Whole Foods Market's Marketing Director Lisa Sweeney visit us. The Rocky River store is one of 400 Markets nation wide vending all natural food items from produce and dairy to meats, bakery items and to delightful wines. The store has its own bakery and pub and all the usual grocery store items, but none of the items contain preservatives. The parking lot has electric car charging stations and even a watering fountain for your pets.

The market opened in 2015 at its current location at 19607 Detroit Road, Rocky River.
