Spotlight On.....

The 83rd Cowbell Meeting (competition) between Lakewood and West Park Kiwanis Clubs will take place on September 22, 2015 at the Lakewood meeting site. The winner will display the cowbell trophy for one year.

The year, 1932, The Kiwanis Club of Lakewood, then 11 years old, was looking for new and fun ways to expand its "Interclub" schedule and together with West Park Kiwanis developed the idea of alternating locations for an annual luncheon. Continued.....

Having just completed their last board meeting of the 2014-2015 Kiwanis Year, these members of our Board of Directors appear pleased with the results. Keeping in budget was President Larry Jones's goal from the start and he was supported by the directors, not only in the photo, but in making decisions during the year. Pictured left to right are: James Vine, Kenneth Eberl (President-elect for 2015-2016), President Larry, Michael Berichon – Treasurer, David Norton, and Matthew Rawlings – Imm. Past President and Division 14 Lt. Governor-elect for 2016-2017.

Lakewood won the first two years and then West Park came back strong, taking the Cowbell home in 1934, '35 and '36. But then, a strange thing happened...West Park decided to change meeting halls, moving to the Bethany Lutheran church on Lorain and Triskett. That turn of events was all Lakewood needed to recapture the trophy in 1937. Throughout the years, Lakewood and West Park have always enjoyed the friendly "Cowbell Competition." Sharing lunch, ideas and fellowship is what Kiwanis is all about...It's what we do best!

Immediate Past President, Matt Rawlings provides entertainment during his installing of officers at the Harrison School Before & After K-kids Club.

Installed as Vice President was Bryanna and Ellen as Treasurer. Alicia was to be installed as president but did not attend the meeting.
