Defining Statement

"Kiwanis is a global organization of volunteers dedicated to changing the world one child and one community at a time."

Kiwanis involves you in your community through social and service projects.

If you have a desire to share your time and talents in community service, Lakewood Kiwanis is the organization for you.

Fellowship and Fun

Men & Women making new friends and enjoying fellowship is one of the personal benefits Kiwanis offers to individuals. Kiwanians come from all walks of life—education, government, banking, marketing, agriculture, international trade, nonprofit organizations, and many other fields. They are corporate officers, managers, business owners, and self-employed professionals. They are young individuals just embarking on careers, successful corporate executives, parents, grandparents, and active retirees.
