

Kiwanis Club of Madison West

KIWANOGRAM

Guests: Andrea Potter, guest of Ed Reisch; Sue and Linda Josheff, daughters of Boris Josheff; Kathy Endle, daughter of Bill Endle; Sheri Piper, mother of Lacy; Susan and Todd Dukes, parents of Jordan; and Thomas and Vicki Hall, parents of Michael.

Program: The Josheff – Endle Kiwanis Music Awards were presented to five high students who will be attending Music Camp at the UW-Madison. Madison School Superintendent Jennifer Cheatham presented the awards and shared her views to insure all students graduate ready for college, career and community.

Her five priority areas are coherent instruction, personalized pathways, family engagement and community partnerships, thriving workforce and accountability. It will take a sustained focus, schools at the center and excellence and equity. She was very thankful for the voter support of the referendum for funding improvements in the school physical facilities.

Superintendent Jennifer Cheatham; Lacy Piper , West; Michael Hall, Memorial; East; and Jordan Dukes, La Follette; Mandell Mathis, den Stier, Edgewood. More details on page 2.
