Pancake Day is only seven days away. You still have time to sell pancake tickets.

Scott Kramer reports we have 22 Madison West High School Key Club members volunteered for our Pancake Day which appears to meet our volunteer needs along with volunteers from Edgewood College Circle K and Edgewood High School Key Club members. Although all positions are filled, members can still signup on our member (pass word protected) web site.

Scott has a few reminders for Pancake Day volunteers:

1. Members are encouraged to wear their Kiwanis Shirts,
2. Volunteers on the first shift (6:00 am -10:15 am) report to Dave Wendricks for your assignment details,
3. Volunteers on the second shift (10:00 am to 1:00 pm) report to Scott Kramer for your assignment details,
4. Daylight saving time ends on Sunday morning, adjust your clocks accordingly.
5. High chairs and booster seats are needed.

Please contact Scott Kramer if you have any questions at skramer1554@charter.net or 608-829-1554).

Annually the UW-Madison Students in Biological Systems Engineering (formerly Agricultural Engineering) conduct Lawnmower, Snow Thrower and Rototiller Clinic where they service these machines for a low price. Several Kiwanians have had their machines serviced in the past. The clinic is scheduled for November 5 – 7. Ron Schuler will have forms available during our October 30 meeting. You can download from the web site from bse.wisc.edu/documents/LMCFlyer_15.pdf if you have questions, please contact Ron Schuler at rschuler@wisc.edu or 271-7114
