

Kiwanis Club of Madison West

KIWANOGRAM

Guests: Fred Bonacker, Gary and Sandy Bubenzer, and Wayne Hammerstrom, visiting from Belleville Kiwanis; Gurdip Brar, visiting from Middleton Kiwanis; A.B. Orlik, Mitch Henck and Mary Lou Reisch, guests of Ed Reisch; and Mark Bear, Cynthia Vandewarde, Larry Kleinsteiber and Harley Skjerven (prospective member), guests of Arlin Brannstrom.

Program: Professor David McDonald of the UW-Madison History Department is recognized as an expert on Russia and indicated that FSB (Federal Security Service), Russian Intelligence Agency was responsible for computer hacking.

Dave reported the FSB hacking has provided a license create problems and will lead to the normal way of doing business at international level. This should be a awake call, especially in today's communication situation where information is coming more quickly and reactions occur more quickly. As a result the accuracy of this information becomes more questionable.

He indicated Asymmetrical Warfare will be normal in the future. This is defined as conflict between two enemies whose military powers differ significantly.

Professor David McDonald
