

KIWANOGRAM

Guests: No guests.

Program: Anne Aley, Precollege Music Program Manager in Continuing Studies at UW-Madison, described the Senior Music Summer Camp attended by many of our Joseff-Endle music scholarship recipients. Anne recognized the support of our club regarding this program.

This week long camp on the UW-Madison campus for students who have completed grades 9-12. This is identified as the senior division. There is also a junior division for middle school students.

In the senior division the campers choose from seven performing ensembles, six group lessons and thirty-two courses. They choose one from each area. The courses range from acting to yoga for performers.

The students participating in this camp are very enthusiastic and continue to grow as a result of the camp. Many of the recipients pursue their music goals. Many return as camp counselors.
