

Kiwanis Club of Madison West

KIWANOGRAM

Guests: Renee Rodeck, spouse of Brian; Kate Richardson, spouse of Bob; Leonard Massie, Mike Ely, Bob Rand, Chris Hodge, and Dick Hammerstrom, members of the Downtown Kiwanis Club; and JoAnn Gruber-Hagen and Doug Hagen, members of the Belleville Kiwanis Club.

Program: Lamont Paris, Associate Head Badger Basketball coach provided a preview of the 2016-17 Badger Basketball Season. Only one player (a non-starter) from the 2015-16 team graduated.

The 2016-17 schedule is very challenging with many ranked teams on the schedule. They will face some top teams in the Maui Invitational scheduled for mid-November. If successful they could play three games in three days

Key to coaching is to treat each player differently but all players must think they are all treated the same. The UW basketball team has thirteen players on full scholarship which includes tuition, room and board, books, and free breakfast. The walk-on players must pay tuition, room and board and books

Announcements:

Jim Danner announced our Pancake Breakfast is on November 6 and volunteers are needed to stuff envelopes in the next one to two weeks.

Bruce Hoehne reminded everyone of the new fundraiser training following today's meeting. The training is required before anyone can volunteer at UW-Madison football games and other UW events.

Reminder: On August 30, Tuesday, 6:00 – 8:00 pm, the Grand Opening of the new Midvale Elementary School Playground takes place. A ribbon cutting will take place and the major donors will be recognized. Madison West Kiwanis is considered as one of the major donors. Madison West Kiwanians are encouraged to attend and wear their Kiwanis shirts. Radio and TV media are expected. This will be an opportunity for Kiwanis to gain greater recognition in the community. Food carts will be available selling a variety of food.
