

Kiwanis Club of Madison West

KIWANOGRAM

Guests: Jim Jennings, guest of Virgil Jurens.

Program: Today's program was arranged by Madison East Kiwanis with the featured speaker, Tony Granato, UW-Madison Men's Hockey Coach. Also in attendance was Associate Coach Mark Strobel. Another Associate Coach is Mark Osiecki. All three are Wisconsin Alumni and have extensive and successful coaching experiences. Since the coach's arrival, the players have become more confident and are receiving greater national recognition. Former Kiwanian, John Schwab, was recognized for his earlier efforts with our All City Hockey Banquet.

Announcements:

Governor Hahn also discussed a concern regarding the decline in Kiwanis membership and opportunities for Kiwanis to meet future needs of children in our communities. Membership has been declining in many other service clubs. Because of the changes, Kiwanis has opportunities to reverse these trends by adjusting to attracting new members who day time work requirements. He encouraged clubs to try new projects and activities to attract these new members. He has set some district goals for his year in office. They include increasing the net district membership by 100, opening two new clubs, perform 100,000 service hours and fundraise at least $1,000,000.

Justin is a member of the Kiwanis Club of Madison After Hours. Governor Hahn will be visiting the Stoughton Kiwanis Club on December 7. This may be an opportunity for a Madison West Kiwanis Interclub.

Bruce Hoehne reports volunteering opportunities at UW-Madison events continue after the home football season is complete. Future opportunities to volunteer include basketball and hockey.

A reminder, Madison West Kiwanis will not have a meeting Friday, November 24.
