

Camps for Kids Assistance Application

Camps for Kids was founded by the Northeast Spokane Kiwanis Club in 2000

Camps for Kids is a collaborative community effort recognizing the value of camp programs. Camps provide opportunities for educational and emotional growth, environmental awareness, leadership, exposure to healthy lifestyles, and respect for diversity. If you have questions, please contact: Peggy (509)953-8981 or camps@spokanekiwanis.com.

One form per camper

- Forms will be reviewed on information provided; please fill out as completely as possible.
- Financial aid will help with only the basic camp fee for one session (no special activity fees).
- Camp Registration – this is not a camp registration form. Follow the registration procedures for the camp of your choice.
- Once all needed information is received, you will be notified by e-mail or regular mail of any award. The payment will be sent directly to the camp of your choice in your camper's name.
- To submit application, complete the online form available on the www.spokanekiwanis.com website, or print out this form, complete, and mail to address below, or email a scanned attachment to camps@spokanekiwanis.com.
