TENT REQUEST: Eve Ward requested the use of the “Large Tent” for use by the Salem United Methodist Church during the Church Fair Saturday, September 6th. This was approved.

VENDOR'S SUMMERFEST CURITIQUE: A food vendor, Pam of Moxie's Ice Cream, offered a number of suggestions for the improvement of Summerfest in general and for the food and craft vendors in particular. Her suggestions will be seriously considered by the Summerfest Planning Committee.

PROGRAM: Summerfest Review: John Brownrigg handed out a list of “issues” that he had noted this weekend and requested the members to consider solutions to these and any other problems that they saw.

Bob Loveridge noted that we do most of Summerfest “by the seat of our pants” and suggested that an operations manual was needed. To this end he requested the event chairs and volunteers outline what they had done before Summerfest as well as at the park. He will bring these together and create the first draft of such a manual.

There was much discussion concerning the dates for Summerfest, trying to find a different ride vendor, the “policing” of Gettle Road and the park in preparation for the fireworks.

John suggested that there be a Summerfest Committee meeting in a few weeks to discuss the various suggestions and needs.

HAPPY DOLLARS

- $ Pat Lane: Wants to thank everyone for Summerfest.
- $ Joe Behson: First for Dick Johnsen, who, at the tennis tournament, made a spectacular one handed catch of the swiftly rising tent as it tried to escape on the wind. And also for Margret and Dorothy who won their bracket!
- $ Mike Gates: For taking a picture of an indigo bunting – his 109th bird in his collection of personally taken photographs.
- $ Barbara Fioravanti: For all the great music at Summerfest, but especially for the Averill Park High School Jazz Band that preformed Sunday.
- $ Sue Jensky: For the all the help she had serving the chicken Bar-B-Que dinners.
- $ Dave Booker: For the US Men's National Team having just won their opener with Ghana 2 to 1!
- $ Bob Loveridge: Thanks for everybody's help at Summerfest!
- $ Jean Hamlin: On behalf of the seniors at Brookside, a thank you for the chicken dinners! (Note: the unsold chicken dinners were given to the Brookside seniors and the group home on NY 150.) The members demanded a joke from her – if you were not there you should start coming to hear these jokes! The whole room was laughing!
- $ Stu Nippes: Just for being HAPPY!

DOOR PRIZE, an IOU from John Brownrigg was won by Bill Whipple!

50/50 for $26, was won by John Brownrigg! It was suggested by just about everyone that the $26 should be the Door Prize” that John owes Bill – But John seemed to be deaf to the suggestion.

PROGRESSIVE 50/50 was worth $807.50 this week, and Bryce Ginther has his shot at the King of Clubs which was among the 14 remaining cards. But no luck as he drew the 3 of Spades.

COMING WEEKS...

JUNE 23

AFTER SUMMERFEST R&R PICNIC!
BUTLER PARK—BRING A DISH TO SHARE & A CHAIR!
(if you are coming and have not already told Eve PLEASE let her know that you will be there – this is necessary so that enough is ordered!)
