John Brownrigg presented the plaque for Kiwanian of the Year to David Booker, for his never-ending service to keep the Club running smoothly! Members responded with a standing ovation!

President Linda then called upon new Lt Gov Pat Lane to conduct the installation of our new officers and directors. She thanked the retiring director, Barb Fioravanti, and officer, Lyndon Ellis, for their service, and assured them that they would be called upon again after their year of rest. LTG Pat then installed John Brownrigg, Bob Loveridge, and Bill Whipple for their 3-year term, and asked the continuing directors, Joe Behson, Craig Daniels, Pat Lane, John Mulligan, Eve Ward, and Peg Weiss to stand with them as they were installed.

The major officers were installed individually. LTG Pat charged Immediate Past President Linda with one more year of service as a member of the Board. Bob Pasquarelli was installed as Treasurer, Dave Booker as the unsung hero Secretary,...

...Janet Malecki as Vice President, Jean Hamlin as President-Elect, and finally Stuart Nippes as President, presenting him with the gavel.

New President Stu's first act was to present Immediate Past President Linda with her Past President's plaque to commemorate her year of service. Linda was also presented with a small gold bell so she could keep ringing it at home! Get some ear plugs, Lyndon!

President Stu told the membership that we needed not only new and younger members, but we need to make a concerted effort to bring our present members back to meetings, and to work on projects. He spoke about the Governor's first Lady's special project, new clothes for newborn babies to wear going home from the hospital. As a newborn nurse, she has seen a need for this, as some parents, many of them single mothers, don't have the extra money to buy clothing, and we can help by providing their first outfit so they can go home with pride!

The evening ended with the door prizes, which were the table decorations, arranged by Eve Ward, mini painted face pumpkins. The five winners whose tickets were drawn were Frank Lewandusky, Linda Ellis, Jean Hamlin, Jerry Tysiak, and Peg Weiss! Congratulations to them, and good luck to all our officers for an exciting and successful year of service!

SPIRITUAL THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK:

“You don’t lead by pointing and telling people some place to go. You lead by going to that place and making a case.”
