The Joe Dean Legacy

Joe Dean had a vision about what adults working together could do for the at-risk children in their communities. Joe joined Kiwanis because it is a community organization focused on children. Over 40-plus years he served Kiwanis in many leadership positions locally and statewide. When his beloved wife, Jean, died soon after he became the Kiwanis Alabama District Governor, instead of withdrawing from service, he devoted his energies, talents, and personal resources to continuing to help the at-risk children of Alabama.

In 1990-1991, to help at-risk children develop mentally, do well in school, and succeed in life, Governor Joe started the Jean Dean Reading is Fundamental program as part of the Alabama Kiwanis Foundation. In recognition of Joe’s lifetime of service, the Alabama Kiwanis Foundation has created the Joe Dean Legacy.

The Joe Dean Legacy offers the opportunity to make a charitable contribution of $5,000 or more to the Alabama Kiwanis Foundation, Inc. through bequest, direct donation, estate plan, or pledge (to be completed within 5 years). This is an unrestricted gift to be used by the Alabama Kiwanis Foundation, Inc. to accomplish its mission to the benefit of the children of Alabama.

Recognizing your Generosity

The Joe Dean Legacy offers the opportunity to make a charitable contribution to the Alabama Kiwanis Foundation through bequest, direct donation, estate plan or pledge to be completed within 5 years. A planned gift through a program bearing Joe Dean’s name ensures that his longtime service through Kiwanis and lifelong commitment to the children of Alabama will continue into the future while benefiting your own financial plan.

Yes, I/we have made a commitment to the Joe Dean Legacy in my/our estate plan.
