Enclose 4 samples –one for each quarter.

Once a Club President meets these criteria, an essay should be submitted as to why he/she deserves Outstanding Club President (in the event of more than one President achieving the five criteria listed above). Ideas to include in the essay:

1. Did the club begin a new service project that brought the club closer together under the leadership of the President?
2. Was there a "special event" that this President inaugurated?
3. What was special about this President?

The Lt. Governor will then submit the name of the Division's Outstanding Club President to the District Office along with the Essay so that one may be chosen as the OUTSTANDING CLUB PRESIDENT of the entire district.
