Dear Club Member:

Thank you for joining your club and becoming part of the Minnesota Dakotas District. May you fulfill your responsibilities as a member in helping to maintain the health and vitality of your club.

The friendships you make with fellow Kiwanians will last a lifetime, whether at the club, district or international level.

As you Serve the Children of the World, may you do it with honor working together towards the goal of service to others.

The District leadership is here to help you and we hope this handbook will be a resourceful tool for you.

Again, thank you for your service and being a part of Kiwanis.

The Minnesota Dakotas District Education

Brief History of Kiwanis

Kiwanis International

Two Detroit Michigan natives, Allen S. Browne and Joseph C. Prance, had an idea one day in August of 1914. It was a concept, rather, to develop an organization that provides fellowship like no other organization. They first constructed this group of only young professional businessmen. The group received their charter from the State of Michigan for the first Kiwanis Club on January 21, 1915. There were 200 members within six months.

Within those first six months the founding club nearly failed. Two men left for Cleveland and started a club that attracted a membership of 135 in 10 weeks.

Kiwanis Club International was adopted in 1924 with more than 1,200 clubs and almost 90,000 members. In 1920 the motto was “We Build” and in 2005 the delegates to the International Convention voted to adopt a new motto, “Serving the Children of the World”.

On July 7, 1987, the delegates to the Kiwanis International Convention voted to accept women into the organization as members after the first concept in 1973. The current membership is 26% women.

Minnesota Dakotas Kiwanis District

The Kiwanis Club of St. Paul was started in 1916 when George F. Hixson was International President. In 1917 Duluth and Minneapolis began clubs.

The Minnesota-Dakotas District of Kiwanis International was originally formed in the fall of 1918 as the Minnesota District. Three District Trustees were elected at one time, one from each club. The Kiwanis club of Duluth raised $3,000.00 for war relief in the same year. In 1919 the District Convention changed the name to the Northwestern District. The Minnesota Dakotas District was approved at the 1920 District Convention.
The Objects of Kiwanis

The six permanent Objects of Kiwanis International were approved at the 1924 Convention in Denver, Colorado and have never been changed

Kiwanis Education

Education is the most important component to your Kiwanis membership. Educating the club member through club sharing Kiwanis information, new member orientation, Club Leadership Education and Achieving Club Excellence gives value to you, the member and your service.

Club Leadership Education (CLE):
- Important session for club officers to learn about their responsibilities, leadership skills and share information
- CLE Sessions held annually in the spring
- President-Elects, officers, board members and club members
- Club officers are a team!
- Online CLE: available for all officers, and members
- Sessions and Online count towards being a Distinguished Club

Achieving Club Excellence (ACE):

This is a process to help clubs be an excellent club with a circular representation to indicate that it never ends, ongoing.
1. Define excellence: what is an excellent club?
2. Assess club vitality: evaluate all aspects of the club
3. Evaluate results: where is the club and why
4. Plan your club’s success: what you want to become and do
5. Share your story: each member has a story
6. Inform members: everyone should know to recruit members
7. Enhance the member experience: make it the best

The club works together with exercises and tools to become a stronger club and to recruit and retain members. The website will give the guidelines and materials to follow: www.kiwanis.org

New Member Orientation:

It is very important for a new member to receive an orientation as soon as possible. If your club hasn’t done this before, encourage the club’s leadership to present this to the club as a program.

The orientation presents most aspects of the club, such as the Kiwanis International and District structure, committees, club’s fundraisers and projects, conventions, education possibilities, benefits of Kiwanis, the responsibilities of the member and the club, how to become involved in the club, the sponsored leadership programs with youth and much more.

On www.kiwanis.org there is a power point that can be downloaded. It is good for a club to designate one person to be responsible to give this to new members. Once the power point is downloaded, the District and Club information can be entered. This is a great education tool for members.
Division Conference

The Division Conference is a time for all Kiwanis members and even their spouses throughout the Division to meet. Members can meet, discuss their clubs’ projects, and get to know each other. This is a day when Kiwanis education is the main emphasis – learning about Kiwanis, service and a fun social time together. Clubs are encouraged to budget funds so members can attend.

The featured guest is the District Governor. He/She have an opportunity to meet members and speak to the members about the District.

Division President’s Council Meetings

The Lieutenant Governor, club presidents and members meet quarterly for their one-third part of their region. These meetings can be held at a central place.

This is an opportunity for clubs to converse, share ideas, inform the club officers of events within the District and International also. It is also a time for the District/Region leadership to advise clubs that have concerns about membership, projects etc.

One of the main items is to discuss club members who could be nominated for a Lieutenant Governor. Clubs are responsible for the future Lieutenant Governors for their Division. The Lieutenant Governor is voted into that position at the Division Conference.

Expenses for these meetings can be reimbursed through the club, if possible.

Committees

The following committees aren’t required but recommended. There is more information the the Kiwanis International website. If the club is smaller, committees can be combined into one.

Committee on Club Administration:
This committee is responsible for providing the most effective club meeting possible. Areas of focus should include the club meeting program, risk management, reception, fellowship and inter-club relations, as well as other areas the committee may deem pertinent.

Committee on Community Services:
This committee should implement projects on the arts, business affairs, citizenship, civic improvement, community beautification, conservation, health, international understanding, literacy, public affairs, safety or help for senior citizens and disabled persons. Popular projects include Special Olympics, Meals on Wheels, issues forums and others.

Committee on Finance and Fundraising:
This committee is responsible for preparing a budget of estimated income and expenses for submission to the board of directors, as well as any recommendations it may have on financial matters of the club. It also is responsible for securing the funds necessary to meet budget requirements.
Committee on Human and Spiritual Values:
This committee should implement projects that support spiritual development, provide human companionship and comfort, or offer counseling and guidance. Projects can encourage interfaith and interdenominational religious activity, such as prayer, but should not support a specific religious sect. Popular projects include prayer breakfasts, layman-of-the-year awards, transportation to religious services, visits to nursing homes and support of grief counseling.

Committee on Membership Growth and Education:
This committee should strive to increase membership. The committee should consider all membership applications and submit its recommendations to the board of directors. The committee also should develop an effective orientation and induction ceremony for new members and promote regular attendance by all members at club meetings.

Committee on Public Relations:
This committee is responsible for helping to ensure that the public receives, through the media and other means, news about events, service projects, fundraisers, goals, programs and achievements of the club.

Committee on Service Leadership Programs:
This committee shall devise ways and means to establish and support Kiwanis Kids programs in elementary schools, Builders Clubs in junior high or middle school, Key Clubs in high schools, Circle K International clubs in the universities and colleges and Aktion Clubs for adults with disabilities. It should encourage and promote the activities of all SLP clubs sponsored by the club. The committee should include the Kiwanis club advisors to sponsored SLP clubs.

Committee on Young Children: Priority One:
An ongoing service program of Kiwanis International, addresses the needs of young children ages 0 to 5. All clubs are encouraged to carry out at least two YCPO projects per calendar year, though many clubs are able to do more—helping children, families, and communities.

Ideas are immunizations, alcohol awareness, lead poisoning, smoke awareness, preventable childhood diseases, playgrounds, early childhood development, etc.

Mentoring a Member
Joining Kiwanis is an invitation to a time of service to your club and community. Therefore, when we join Kiwanis, we need someone to help us to learn about Kiwanis. The person who asks us to join, should be the person to introduce us to Kiwanis. So, what are the responsibilities?

1. Introduce the new member to everyone, personally, within the club.
2. Include the member in conversations and decisions.
3. Invite, pick up and take the member to service projects and fundraisers.
4. Work beside the member, so when questions are asked, you can answer them.
5. Explain the workings of the club, meeting by meeting, while the questions are current.
6. Involve the member in the committees of the club.
7. Invite the member to attend a Division Conference and District Convention with you.
8. Invite the member to a Club Leadership Education session that is held for club officers and members.

9. Introduce and help them with the District and International websites to become familiar with them so they can research different topics and obtain information.

10. Nominate them to be on the board of directors. This is where the new member will begin to learn about Kiwanis.

11. Work with them during this time so they can become a club officer, e.g. president, Lieutenant Governor, District Director or District Governor. The possibilities are endless.

12. Encourage, coach and support the new member by getting to know them personally.

13. Show them they are needed, beginning with small tasks.

14. Ask them for feedback. Their input can provide a new perspective.

The “Workings” of a Club

People join organizations for various reasons. Most people that join Kiwanis are dedicated to children, service and volunteering within their community. So, if this is the reason, let's work together to work with our members as a team to accomplish service to children and a better community.

No two Kiwanis clubs are the same, however, most have the same structure of meetings, etc.

1. Welcome all members, new or established, to the club’s meetings and functions to be a part of the “family of Kiwanis”. This is how we retain members!

2. Meetings can include the announcements, happy dollars, song, humorous moment, and a program from the community.

3. Service projects are approved by the Board of Directors and implements through the designated committee and the members.

4. Fundraisers are approved by the Board of Directors and organized through the fundraising/finance committee. Members participate.

5. All members cannot, and should not, be expected to participate in every service project and fundraiser. However, allow the members to have the freedom with their schedule and interest to participate with those of their interest, etc. It is great to have 100% participation, however, sometimes that is not feasible and sometimes it is needed.

6. Invite, encourage and include members who are not always active to participate. Mentor them to become a director or officer. Draw them out to participate.

7. Board and Committee meetings should be held monthly.

8. Dues are paid to the club, as the club specifies, either annually or biannually.

9. Encourage members to attend Division Conferences, District Conventions and International Conventions. This helps the member learn the “workings” of the Kiwanis organization.

10. The club has an annual meeting of all members in May to elect the officers for the following Kiwanis year which is October 1st thru September 30th.

11. Clubs are encouraged to develop a brochure about the club’s meetings, service projects and fundraisers, as well as information about Kiwanis. These can be distributed at service projects and fundraisers throughout the community. It is also a great tool for recruiting members.

Note: It is recommended that club officers don’t use acronyms of the Kiwanis terms, as members don’t know what they mean.
Club Meetings

Regular and Board Meetings

The regular club meetings are held as directed by the club’s and Kiwanis International bylaws and the board meeting times are scheduled for once a month by the club.

Annual Meeting

The nominating committee, which is a group of members and/or officers, shall present members for the offices to be filled for the following year. These names are announced two weeks in advance to the annual meeting, along with notifying all members 30 days in advance of the meeting. The annual meeting is held for members to vote. The elected officers’ names are reported to Kiwanis International and District office no later than June 1st. This is important so District leadership can contact those individuals for Club Leadership Education, etc.

Interclub

An interclub meeting is one that is jointly planned and held by two or more Kiwanis clubs, or by a Kiwanis club and any CKI Club, Key Club, Builders Club, K-Kids Club, and/or Aktion Club, and duly announced as such in advance through club notices. Only two Kiwanis members visit a CKI club, Key Club, and/or Builders Club meeting. To qualify for interclub credit, the meeting must be an official meeting of the host club. Conventions, Division meetings and similar events do not qualify.

Perfect Attendance

Attendance is credited for attending a regular meeting, committee meeting, board meeting as an officer or member as an observer, a fundraiser, and a service project.

Bylaws

All officers of the club should refer to the Bylaws for answers to their questions. Each member should receive a copy. If the club hasn’t reviewed their bylaws, this should be completed soon. The Bylaws have changed due to the approval at the 2012 International Convention. Instructions are given and the form can be completed online at www.kiwanis.org.

Kiwanis One Day

Each year, Kiwanis clubs around the world join in a day of service. It’s a global effort, but it’s made of personal commitments. This is held in the spring with a community project to involve Kiwanis clubs and Service Leadership Program clubs within your community.

After all, Kiwanis One Day consists of the involvement of Kiwanis club members around the world. It begins with your club’s participation. It extends to the impact you have on your community and it results in an international spirit of service that inspires people worldwide.

Kiwanis International (KI) is an international, coeducational organization of service clubs founded in 1915.

- KI is headquartered in Indianapolis, Indiana.
- Kiwanis Clubs are found in more than 80 national and geographic areas.
- Current membership in Kiwanis including the entire family of clubs is nearly 600,000.
- Kiwanians raised more than $100 million last year worldwide.
- Kiwanians reported over 18 million volunteer hours last year worldwide.
- KI is a volunteer-led organization headed by a Board of Trustees consisting of 19 members: 15 elected trustees, 4 elected officers, and an executive director (paid position).
- There are approximately 115 employees in KI; most working at KI headquarters in Indianapolis, IN.
- KI trustees serve a three-year term, with 5 trustees elected at the international convention each year.

  As set out in the Bylaws, 9 trustees are elected from the U.S. and Pacific Canada Region, 1 trustee is elected from the Canada & Caribbean Region, 2 trustees from the European Region, 2 trustees from Asia-Pacific, and 1 trustee elected “at large” from any region other than the U.S. and Pacific Canada region. The elected officers include V.P., president-elect, president and immediate past president. The executive director is a full time employee who is responsible for the organization’s paid staff and serves as a non-voting member of the board.

- There are 7 regions that make-up Ki: Africa, Asia-Pacific; Canada and Caribbean; Europe; Latin America; Middle East; and U.S. and Pacific Canada. The U.S. and Pacific Canada Region incorporate the 50 states of the U.S. as well as British Columbia and the Yukon Territory of Canada.

- There are 53 administrative areas called districts in Kiwanis. District boards typically consist of a governor-elect, governor, and immediate-past governor, secretary, treasurer, and several trustees or Lt. Governors. In many districts the secretary and treasurer positions are combined. Normally this is the only paid position in a district. Other officials sometimes receive mileage and other reimbursements for some travel.

- A second worldwide service project is currently ongoing called “The Eliminate Project.” This is a global campaign to save or protect millions of mothers and their future babies in partnership with UNICEF. Kiwanis has pledged to raise $110 million to eliminate tetanus that kills one baby every 9 minutes.

- The Motto of Kiwanis is “Serving the Children of the World.” This motto replaced the original motto: “We Build.” The new motto was approved at the International Convention by vote in 2005.

- The defining statement for Kiwanis is: “Kiwanis is a global organization of volunteers dedicated to improving the world, one child and one community at a time.”

- The Kiwanis website can be accessed at: Kiwanis.org

- There is a website for members titled KiwanisOne.org

- Members use their Kiwanis ID to access resources on this website. The ID can be found on the Kiwanis Magazine sent to all members.

- There are six Objects of Kiwanis International that were approved by club delegates at the 1924 Convention in Denver, Colorado. These objects have never been changed since that vote. They are listed below:

  1. To give primacy to the human and spiritual rather than to the material values of life.
  2. To encourage the daily living of the Golden Rule in all human relationships.
  3. To promote the adoption and the application of higher social, business, and professional standards.
  4. To develop, by precept and example, a more intelligent, aggressive, and serviceable citizenship.
  5. To provide, through Kiwanis clubs, a practical means to form enduring friendships, to render altruistic service, and to build better communities.
  6. To cooperate in creating and maintaining that sound public opinion and high idealism which make possible the increase of righteousness, justice, patriotism, and goodwill.

• Every year, in the summer, there is a Kiwanis convention. These are held all over the world. This summer the convention takes place in Tokyo, Japan from July 17-20.
