Kaboom Playground-

The Alamosa Kiwanis will be a community partner with the City of Alamosa to build a new playground. The new playground will be built at Lee Softball Fields in Alamosa and will replace the existing playground. Through a grant from Kaboom and the help of community volunteers, the playground will be built in one day. The build date will be late June.

Stay tuned to find out how you can get involved.

Meet our newest club member-

Amy McKinley

Amy McKinley has been married to her husband Robert McKinley for 28 years. Robert has worked at Rio Grande County for 24 years and is a HS football official. They live on a small ranch in Mosca and are now empty nesters. They have two daughters: Brooke Colvin graduated from Adams State, is married and has one son. Jenna McKinley is currently a sophomore at CSU Pueblo and on the track team.

The McKinley Family has been involved with 4-H, FFA, and sports for many years. Amy has professionally worked in Alamosa County for 22 years in 4 different roles all directly related to finance. She spent 9 months at ASU as the payroll manager for 400 students and 500 employees. She is currently the Human Resources/Risk Manager for the City of Alamosa.

Amy is running for Alamosa County Treasurer/Public Trustee. She is passionate about local level government, loves being a public servant, supporting our community and especially supporting youth.
