Happy Dollars

Doug Reed announced he spent time with his parents and brother in Alaska. Mother turned 88 and brother is 60.

Happy Birthday.

Happy/Sad dollar. Doug went to see mother and brother for birthday. Doug also went to see his dad who is in a home who has limited time to live. Prayers to Doug and his family.

Suzanne Anderson announced Bill Dale's wound is healing slowly, but he's getting better.

Another happy dollars to celebrate the fact that we are pulling off a huge fundraiser event in Glendo.

Kent Drake announced he was in Germany on Vacation. He paid his birthday check. Also Kent congratulated the FFA Sale team for a great event. Over $111,000 raised...that a record.

Neil Webb, Farmers Insurance. Neil has sold his agency. As of Sept 1 Neil is happily unemployed

Jim Marshal. Periscope at the Botanic Gardens.

Thank you Kiwanis helping to bring it to Cheyenne. So far 567 people have looked through the periscope. .

Gene Burchette, Owner of Tidd-Bits announced every week there is trivia in his paper. This week there is a great piece on the Eclipse. Get yourself a copy of the newspaper and learn all you want to know about this great event.

Brenda Birkle announced the FFA sale went well. Thank you Lorrell Walter and High West Digital Solutions for providing laptop, Trudy Eisley for taking care of the steaks. And Kelly Seis for donated a table for buyers.

Chuck Seniawski announced Len Treber just had a birthday. 98 years old. Len's chemo is going well controlling his cancer. Len Treber's name is on the stone outside the warehouse. 1955 Len joined Kiwanis. Len was our Administrative Secretary for many years basically and ran the club.
