Laura Munari announced we will be off location June 14 at the Depot and June 21 at Kiwanis Community House.

Kiwanis received the Community Partner Award from the Salvation Army, We are all invited Thursday, May 17 at 5pm at Salvation Army for the presentation.

Tom Roberts announced The Kiwanis Board, last fall, approved our Club participation, on an ongoing basis, in the BOPU/Conservation District Crow Creek remediation project as presented at a Kiwanis meeting last September.

The first event, a cleaning day, has now been scheduled for next Saturday, May 12th, 8 a.m. We are to meet at the parking lot at 1st Avenue and Morrie which you can reach turning left at the stoplight after the underpass as you are going to the Kiwanis Treber Building. The parking area is adjacent to the backside of the refinery where the ruck are loaded. Bring gloves, preferably water proof, and waders if you have them. There is more information set out below.

Thanks, Later, TomR

Paul Bellotti and Jim Cooms are getting rid of Cheyenne Rib Fest Shirts for a small donation to the club.

Marty Sears, quartermaster, announced there were 12 ppl at the work session. They painted, worked on signs, sprayed weeks and put up lights.

Bob Monger announced the Kiwanis Car Show is June 28.

Chuck Tyler and Brian Lenell gave out Chocolate Indulgence Pins to all who helped at the event this year.

Happy Birthday

Stay tuned till next week.

Happy Dollars

President Laura Munari's son received a scholarship from FCCLA. Last year Laura's daughter worked on the fundraiser and now her son is receiving the money.

Judy Lahiff gave happy dollars for the Carnival she helped with, for winning a gas grill, for the help she received getting the grill home and just because our Kiwanis Club is the best ever.

Lisa Maney announced May 19, 10am to 2pm the MAC Appreciation
