Ginger Barnhart

Columbine Kiwanians,

I extracted the following Facebook posts from Kimberly Barnhart.

"Hello everyone. This is Kimberly Barnhart, Ginger Barnhart's daughter. My mother passed away on January 24, for those of you that might not have heard. I will be running my mother's Facebook account. Please feel free to post on her. I will be watching it at least once a week. If you are a client of hers, I will be the one making sure your accounts are taken care of."

"Just a heads up for those who would like to make it to Ginger Barnhart's memorial service. We will be having it Feb. 11th at 1200 at Clements Community Center, 1580 Yarrow St, Lakewood, CO 80214. There will be food after the service." - Rod Hunley

Thank You From Lorna Herbaly

We recently received a thank you letter from Lorna Herbaly. Herb passed away last year and included us with a gift to our foundation. Brad and Jan took her some flowers as a thank you gift. Many of us long term members remember Herb fondly. Lorna is famous for bringing her pies to our parties.

1-28-17

*Dear Kiwanis friends,
Thank you all for the beautiful floral bouquet delivered by Brad this past week.*

Your Kiwanis Club was surely a joy to both Herb and to me.

Herb decided quite some time ago that he no longer wanted to roll out early to make your breakfasts, but he surely missed seeing all of you great friends.

Your love and support is surely appreciated!

Lorna

Action Center Food Bank Feb 4, 2017

Our shift at the Action Center was manned by Abe B, Bill M, Brian C, Jan C, Jerry C, Maggie M, Powell W, Rod H, Russ J, Tom F, & Tom M. Thanks again to Carrie Y & Sharon May for joining us. The Kiwanians were assigned our usual task of cleaning & restocking the food sections. Bill, Russ and the Toms cleaned and restocked the Freezer/Cooler and Abe & Rod handled the heavy lifting. The others cleaned and restocked the fruits/vegetables & bread bins and the can goods shelves. We were again thanked for the efficient manner in which we handled our tasks. A couple of dozen "other Action Center" volunteers were kept out of our way by being assigned tasks in other sections of

We had some new faces this time Jan and Jerry Clayton. Pictured left to right: Jerry Clayton, Powel, Jan Clayton, Maggie, and Brian.

Littleton HS Key Club

Denny Brehm and I attended our second Key Club Meeting at Littleton High School on Thursday January 26th.

The Club spent much of the meeting discussing all of the service projects that they are going to do through the rest of the school year. Denny and I presented the X, the Text program, which is the same program that the Columbine High School Key Club did last October. We have already contacted the Colorado State Patrol Foundation to see if we can get one of their totaled vehicles to display during the day at the school. The Club is looking to do the program sometime around when Prom occurs. We will let you know more specifics as the plans are made. Respectively, Brian Dee Counterman

Salvation Army Bell Ringing:

We received a nice thank you letter from Major Julio Vasquez. We raised $25,516.78 dollars with our ringing. That is about $200 per 2 hour shift.

RE: Thank you for your support to our Red Kettle Campaign!

Julio and his wife Karen will be at our meeting this week. Be on your best behavior, maybe we can talk them into joining our club. Maybe it is best if Abe and I sit in the back room.
