Remembering Lewis

Left, Lewis Headrick. Lewis was a long time member of our club having joined on October 3, 1995. Lewis served our club in many officer positions. In addition, Lewis served as Lt. Governor of Division 11 of the Rocky Mountain District. Lewis had a great knowledge of Kiwanis and a wonderful sense of humor.

Right, Jess Kadel. Jess distributed 2018 calendars. Jess said he receives them from organizations that solicit donations. Jess said his property tax bill went up.

Left, Rogers Coke. Rogers went skiing at Eldora Mountain Resort and said there was a lot of powder which made for excellent skiing.

Special points of interest:

- The next club meeting is Tuesday, February 13, 2018 at 9:00 AM at Frasier Meadows Retirement Center in the Community Room. There will be a presentation.
- Bridge House is a non-profit in Boulder whose mission is to address immediate survival needs of homeless and low income individuals and provide resources which lead to employment, housing, personal stability and healing. Bridge House provides outreach case management services for basic needs-from bus fare to prescription medications- and also provides employment services and nightly meals at its Community Table dinner program.

Trivia Question courtesy: <http://trivia.fyi> What 3 countries do not use the metric system?

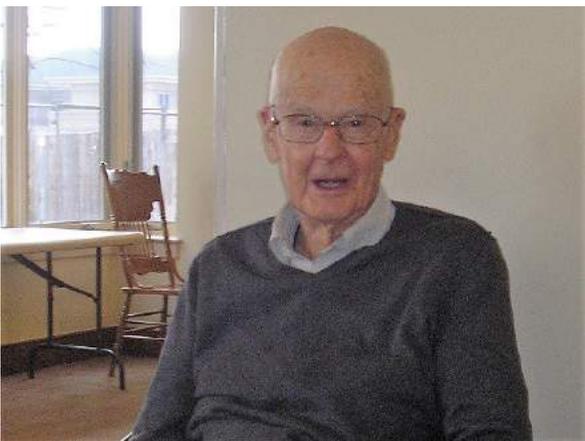

Answer below.

Left, Dave Finlay. Dave said he was happy to get up this morning.

Helen Hall said, "All is well".

Right, Jolane Fenner. Jolane said it has been "crazy busy" at her work. Jolane enthusiastically talked about the finance course she is taking at Metropolitan State College. Jolane said her instructor is very passionate about finance. In fact, the instructor was a medical doctor, but switched professions because of her passion. She said if one is on Medicaid, the government can take your house away, if necessary, to recover money paid for certain services. In certain cases, the government might also go after your children's property.

Left, Charles Hadley. Charles commented that Venezuela has very bad inflation. Helen said her daughter-in-law's mother still lives in Venezuela.

Trivia Answer: Liberia, Myanmar and The United States

Kiwanis is a global organization of volunteers dedicated to changing the world one child and one community at a time.
