Left, the meeting room setup. Arlene is moving to Santa Fe, NM to be near her daughter Wendy's family. Arlene will be living in a resort community named, "Quail Run". It has many amenities, including full-time security, a common dining room, a golf course, tennis courts, exercise facilities, an indoor swimming pool and a 9-hole golf course. Quail Run is across the street from where Wendy just bought a home. Arlene helped Wendy unpack into her new home. Rogers Coke visited Arlene last week in Santa Fe as he was returning from a trip to Tucson, AZ.

Right, the entrance to Quail Run from across the road.

Reminder: The April 11, 2017 meeting will be held in the Community Room at Walnut Place, 1940 Walnut, Boulder.

Left, Helen Hall and Arlene. At the club's April 4th meeting, Arlene showed a photo of the Flatirons which Jess Kadel had taken and given to Arlene. Arlene was a surprise guest at the meeting. She was in Boulder to close on selling her Boulder home.

Helen mentioned that she needed some plumbing work done, but was surprised at the amount of money a plumbing company would charge her. She enlisted the help of a friend to fix her problem.

Rogers said he had a good time in Tucson. The temperature ranged from a low of 33 degrees to a high of 97 degrees. On his return to Boulder, Rogers heard reports of 20" of snow on Raton Pass. Fortunately, he drove through clear roads and skies all the way back to Boulder.

Helen said Scott, her son, was off by one year when he told Helen how old she was going to be this year.

Trivia Question courtesy: <http://www.triviacountry.com/> Which city lays claim to the invention of the cheeseburger? Answer below.

Left, Dave Finlay and Jess. At the club meeting on April 4, Dave said he won pizza for a year by guessing the most correct answers at Old Chicago Pizza in Denver in the College Basketball March Madness brackets. Dave receives one free pizza each month. Dave picked North Carolina to win. He also played for his friend Gus in Longmont at Old Chicago and won there also. Also at Old Chicago in Superior, Dave would have won with the answers he gave, but he did not get his online picks registered in time. Dave said there was a trivia question that was very hard. Elements from the Periodic Table were given and a team had to match those elements with song titles. For instance, Gold is element # 79. So, the team would need to name a song with the word “gold” in the title. Jess said he also watched the finals of March Madness.

Right, pinwheels which Ken Fowler made. Ken attended his first Key Club meeting at Monarch High School. He helped the members of the Key Club make pinwheels for a fundraiser for CASA which is occurring on April 20. The pinwheels are for “Prevention of Child Abuse Month”. They needed 300 pinwheels. All the pinwheels had stickers. Ken may also help with the Attention Homes “Kaleidoscope” fundraiser. Ken mentioned there are two prominent four-letter words in the world of origami. The words are “tape” and “glue”.

Barbara Fink will be visiting Kansas City to see her friend, and her friend’s granddaughter. The granddaughter will be performing as the lead dancer at the Kansas City ballet. Jess said that Kansas City has a beautiful train station and a refurbished opera house. Jess saw his first burlesque show in Kansas City.

Dottie Imel sang “Back in the Saddle Again” for the group.

Trivia Answer: Denver. The trademark for the name Cheeseburger was awarded in 1935 to Louis Ballast.
