Other stuff: Susan (first time) drew the green stone! Chance at $125 next week. Tanner McAdoo presented University Innovation Fellows “maker spaces” he and his team are preparing at CSM. He will be in Palo Alto, CA, next week showing the AIF project. He currently has an almost perfect grade point average! He is our Freshman scholarship winner last October! Way to GO, Tanner! 4-H at Parr and Allendale Elementary Schools are looking to train Mentors! More information is on the next page.

Mentors Needed at Parr and Allendale Elementary

Parr Elementary, 84th & Sheridan, Arvada
Allendale Elementary, 58th and Kipling, Arvada

These are two amazing schools that host our Youth and Families with Promise 4-H Mentoring program. We are looking for mentors to work with the kids on a weekly basis on either Monday or Thursday afternoons right after school. These programs have numerous project groups and we would like to have mentors who can commit to working with these kids for a year. Please call Lisa Stavig at 303 271-6623 to apply or with any questions.

A 4-H Mentor:

- ✓ Helps children in our at-risk schools learn skills for future success
- ✓ Works with 3-5 students on a Jefferson County Fair 4-H project
- ✓ Teaches students leadership and helps them develop self-esteem
- ✓ Gives at-risk kids hope and encouragement

A 4-H Club Child:

- ✓ Receives free materials to participate in 4-H
- ✓ Engages in teamwork & creates new friendships
- ✓ Contact Lisa Stavig at 303 271-6623.
