Member Concerns

Rich Munsell updated member concerns:

- RF Smith said we received a very nice thank you note from Kellie O'Regan for our support during Mark O'Regan's "Celebration of Life" funeral service in April. Kellie said Mark especially enjoyed our Saturday meetings, 4th of July parade and ringing the Christmas bell. She said she loved the card with so many signatures.
- Roy Wheeler, former Sertoma and Kiwanis member, died on May 9. Services are private.
- Stan Snyder has had more surgery on his knee.
- Rich directed attention to Pat Losey, who was sporting a "shiner" on her left eye. Turns out Pat fell while helping Jerry in the house. Pat is recovering well.

In lieu of another hat, Benny Nasser awarded Tom Van Wormer with a star for his frog hat. The "Frog" is awarded to an individual for acts of a ridiculous nature. Tom's latest faux pas was to forget photos he planned to bring to the meeting for display on the big screen. Tom's job now is to find the next recipient, so be careful what you do and who you tell.

Club business:

- A paper was available with International Kiwanis proposed amendments for the Paris Conference. RF Smith said the amendments will be discussed at the board meeting next week.
- Lots of volunteers are needed for the Soapbox Derby. Specifically for the Derby practice day that occurs on Sunday June 4; final inspection on Saturday morning June 10, and race day on Sunday June 11. Glenn Scott still needs help hauling some PVC type pipes to line the track.
- There will be a Division Four open meeting Saturday, May 20 from 7:00 - 9:00 pm at the Country Lodge in Woodland Park. The topic is "Everything You Want to Know About Kiwanis International But Were Afraid to Ask."
- The Vietnam traveling wall will be in Colorado Springs from May 18 - 21 at the Rock Family Church.
- RF Smith thanked Steve Stephenson for his committees' hard work that produced four news articles for things we are doing.
- Our next social mixer is July 7th, and the Christmas party is scheduled for December 6.
- The Griffith Golf Tournament is on June 29, so save the date. We support the tournament with Marshals, etc. Rich Rima has the sign-up sheet.
- RF Smith passed around a signup sheet for the tour of the USAFA small satellite Astro laboratory facilities. The tour will occur right after our meeting on June 3rd, about 10:00 to noon. Attendees must be U.S. citizens. See RF or Jim Head for details.
- Deaf and Blind Golf program occurs Mondays and Thursdays from 4:00 to 5:30 pm.at the Cherokee Ridge Golf Course with about a dozen kids. Please see Bill Stoner for details.

- See Ed Tomlinson to sign up for the Integrity Bank charity golf tournament scheduled for June 16. Cost is $100 - 120.
- Dennis Beasley solicited support for this newsletter by acting as scribe o' da day - just need to take notes from the speakers presentation. See Glenn Scott's write-up below for an example.

HAPPY BUCKS

Tom Van Wormer was thrilled that he just passed his driver's test. He is another year older and had a great day!.

Harry Brandon had happy bucks for: 1) Our great bunch of Divas, 2) His participation in Military Order of the World Wars (MOWW) high school activities where he sees kids with a lot of enthusiasm and discipline. It gives you a lot of hope.

Tuck Tucker was really happy that he sold his house in one day! Now he is Colorado homeless. Tuck didn't say if he was looking for a place to stay at night...

Paul Short had a very happy buck for Rich Munsell. Rich noticed that Paul did not look so well a few weeks ago. An hour and a half later Paul was in the hospital emergency room. Paul expressed gratitude for all our friends in Kiwanis, especially his new hero Rich. Paul also had a Snickers bar for Benny Nasser, the Frog Hat man.

Young Boys Who Fought in the Civil War

Benny Nasser

Scribe: Glenn Scott

Benny Nasser, one of our resident civil war historians, spoke to us on the topic of "Young Boys in the Civil War." At the time of the war, the youngest age for the armies to take volunteers was 16. But we learned that tens of thousands of boys under 16, some as young as 11, lied about their age so they could serve. Many times a father going to war would take his young son with him to be a part of the same unit.

The youngsters filled several different billets, many connected to music. Their jobs ranged from being drummers, buglers or fifers to "powder monkeys," stretcher bearers, hospital attendants and actual soldiers.

Benny is a master at researching civil war archives where he derived personal narratives for a variety of these young recruits. He brought to life the accounts of several of these boys including pictures and individual stories of their experiences and their reflections on the war.

Benny portrayed young men like 12-year-old Charles King, a drummer who rose in rank to become a Drum Major. Charles was the youngest soldier killed in the battle of Antietam. Also, Orian Howe, 13, was especially courageous under fire. His father had taken him with him when he enlisted, lying about Orian's age. Because of Orian's bravery, he was awarded the Medal of Honor in 1896. Benny told of another boy from Vermont who also received the Medal of Honor. John Clem, 1851-1937, fought bravely at the battle of Chickamauga and rose to become a Major General.

These are a few of the interesting stories of the young men who were motivated to represent their states in this tragic war. We thank Benny for bringing us this educational and captivating presentation.

Happy Trails!
