Rich Strom provided us information on Sherrie Beasley's health. She suffered a brain aneurism Thursday evening and is currently in Intensive Care. Dennis has said she is doing a little better, but is not able to receive visitors or phone calls.

Sept 2
Offie Lopez

Thom Csrnko had knee replacement surgery last week.

Sept 9
Dennis Beasley

Jim Clemons asked us to keep Sherrie and Thom in our prayers. Jim also asked our Father to hear our prayers for people along the coastal region of Texas facing the monumental grip of Hurricane Harvey. The suffering and damage will be great and we pray for maximum help and support. Father, we observed the eclipse of the sun this last week dramatizing the size of the universe created by you. While we are tiny particles in this universe, your love for each of us seems endless and profound. Help us to respond in kind, showing respect and concern to those we encounter.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

September 30, 2017
Changing of the Guard

Scott Ross was recognized by RF Smith and Ron Mangiarelli with the Legion of Honor for his 25 year membership in Kiwanis. Congratulations and thanks to your service to Kiwanis!

Thanks Larry
Young

Russ Broshous gave us a briefing on the Monument Hill Foundation Grant Plan. The Foundation received 40 total applications. Less money was available this year for discretionary grants -- $45,000 vs. $50,000 last year. Lewis-Palmer School District 38 applicants received 16 grants totaling $17,580 (40%), and other applicants received 24 grants totaling $26,520 (60%). The Granting Committee was recognized for their great job making these difficult decisions.

Our next inter-club meeting is with the Colorado Springs club on 20 September at Paninis for lunch. Marian Taylor has details. Marian also has info and a signup sheet for our next mixer that will be September 29th. The theme this mixer is "Octoberfest" - brats and beer and lederhosen.

President - RF Smith

President Elect - Barb
Broshous

Tom Nelson gave us the results from Bingo last Monday: 180 players and profits of $8,993.43 for the night. RF Smith loves round numbers, so he contributed $6.53 to take us to $9,000! Tom thanked all our members that manned the Bingo hall for this strong evening! Tom specially recognized Mark Zeiger for all his help making this a smooth effort.

Immediate Past

President - Rich Strom

Secretary - Mike Luginbuhl

During our latest mixer, a number of gentlemen participated in a knobby knees contest. To get to know each other better, Russ Broshous sponsored a "gams" contest. The objective of this contest was to match the contestant's legs to the their faces. The correct matches can be seen below. Russ announced the results of the contest:

Dave Wittman distributed the signup sheet for Empty Bowls - still many positions to fill. Many jobs can be done before the event and you can volunteer for more than one activity. Sharon Williams filled us in on activities by the potters and wood turners - they have been busy. Sharon also told us about an upcoming event - the Front Range Open Studios on September 9 & 10. In particular, Clay in Colors and Milo Scott contribute their work to our Empty Bowls project.

RF Smith updated information about the Safeway gift cards that provide money to the foundation. RF urged us to run down the balance on these gift cards and said Safeway is going to issue new cards with better security. He said Safeway has been very responsive to this loss of funds and promptly covered the losses from his card. If you have lost money from your card, Tom Nelson and Jack Fry have the email address to contact Safeway.

RF Smith gave us information on the 4th Annual Griffith's Kitchen Culinary Competition, which pairs local chefs with culinary students from Griffith Centers for Children Chins Up. At this event you can sample the offerings of top chefs and our Griffith kids. There is plenty of food, drink, and camaraderie. Come and join in on the fun on September 14 from 6 to 9 pm at the Garden of the Gods Collection venue. Cost is $75 per person or $140 per couple. Registration details are in an E-blast sent by RF.

Dir - Interclub & Social - Marian Taylor

We have received a $50 donation to the Foundation in memory of Wayne Claybaugh from Gloria Petit-Clair. We also received a check of $500 from the Rocky Mountain District for adding 14 new members to our club this year.

Giving it his best, Ted Bauman asked band members to press their uniforms and break out their instruments in preparation for the change-of-command ceremony. He said there are open spots in the band for anyone that would like to join. Ted said something about auditions, but it really isn't necessary.

Tri-Lakes Women's Club is holding their fall Harvesting Hope fundraiser at Spruce Mountain Ranch on Thursday, September 21. This premier food- and beverage-tasting event features delicious food from a variety of different local restaurants and includes a silent auction. Mark Zeiger said they need setup help from 11:00am to 1:00pm and breakdown help from 9:00pm to 10:00pm.

HAPPY BUCKS

Barb Broshous added coinage and welcomed her neighbors Ken and Diane Everett to the meeting. Thanks for joining us!

Frank Bittinger was happy for his viewing of the total eclipse with the Colorado Springs Astronomy Club at Glendo State Park in Wyoming. The eclipse was awesome!

Jamie Riegert was heading straight to the airport after the meeting, sending his son to college in the Netherlands. His son plans to study Industrial Engineering focused on Artificial Intelligence. An exciting experience!

Even though Frank Wynne missed it, Paul Gorley was happy because Saturday was his birthday. Paul said he is really a happy person, just doesn't speak up much, so he put in ten happy bucks for earlier happiness. Happy Birthday Paul!

Ron Mangiarelli had a happy buck for the happy relocation of three troublesome raccoons.
