POINTS TO PONDER.....

- Ø The voices in my head may not be real, but they have some good ideas!
- Ø Always borrow money from a pessimist. He won't expect it back.
- Ø Money can't buy happiness, but it sure makes misery easier to live with.
- Ø You're never too old to learn something stupid.
- Ø To be sure of hitting the target, shoot first and call whatever you hit the target.
- Ø Nostalgia isn't what it used to be.
- Ø A bus is a vehicle that runs twice as fast when you are after it as when you are in it.
- Ø If I agreed with you, we'd both be wrong.
- Ø We never really grow up, we only learn how to act in public.
- Ø War does not determine who is right - only who is left.
- Ø Knowledge is knowing a tomato is a fruit; Wisdom is not putting it in a fruit salad.
- Ø Evening news is where they begin with 'Good evening', and then proceed to tell you why it isn't.

Obituary for Francis L. Fowler

Francis L. (Jack) Fowler was born on October 4, 1924, in Chappell, Nebraska. His family moved several times, and he grew up in Poudre Park, Fort Collins, and Denver, graduating from North High School. His college years at CU in Boulder were interrupted by WWII and a stint in the U.S. Navy. He spent his 21st birthday in Shanghai. He returned to Colorado after the war and graduated from CU.

Jack met his wife Evelyn in Denver and they were married for 67 years. During that time, he started his career at Public Service Company of Colorado, and became a father to Susan and Terri. The family moved from Denver to Boulder and then to Fort Collins. Jack made friends wherever he went, and loved to entertain at his basement bar. He was proud of his membership in the Kiwanis Club for over 50 years, and these activities were very important to him. He and Evelyn traveled the world on cruises and tours, sharing these trips with close friends.

As his health declined, he moved into assisted living, where he was an inspiration to many people. He always had a positive attitude and was beloved by many.

Jack is survived by his wife Evelyn, daughters Susan (Greg) and Terri (Ruben), 4 grandchildren and 3 great-grandchildren, as well as his many friends.

• An elderly couple return to a Mercedes dealership to find the salesman had just sold the car they were interested in to a beautiful, leggy, busty blonde.

"I thought you said you would hold that car till we raised the $75,000 asking price," said the man. "Yet I just heard you closed the deal for $65,000 to that lovely young lady there. You insisted there could be no discount on this model."

"Well, what can I tell you? She had the ready cash, and just look at her, how could I resist?" replied the grinning salesman.

Just then the young woman approached the old folks and handed them the keys.

"There you go," she said. "I told you I could get this joker to drop the price."

"See you later, grandpa."
Never mess with the elderly!

SPEAKING OF DRINKING...

At local taverns, pubs, and bars, people drank from pint and quart-sized containers. A bar maid's job was to keep an eye on the customers and keep the drinks coming. She had to pay close attention and remember who was drinking in 'pints' and who was drinking in 'quarts,' hence the phrase 'minding your 'P's and Q's'.
