NO BIRTHDAYS OR ANNIVERSARIES THIS WEEK.

While his mother was studying the chapter on hematology for her nursing course, Daniel, four years old, asked what she was reading. Sensing an opportunity to teach, she explained how the heart pumps blood all through our bodies and keeps us alive. Then she taught him to feel the pulse in wrists and feet.

Daniel wandered off, but his mother noticed him looking at the soles of his feet. He twisted and turned, then pulled down his shorts to look at his bottom. With some difficulty he managed to reach part of his back.

*"Whatever are you doing, Daniel?"
"Where do we put the batteries?"
He asked.*

ONE LINERS....

You are getting old if it takes you longer to rest than it did to get tired.

The average time between throwing something out and needing it again is about 2 weeks.

Money may still talk, but every year it makes less cents.

SMILES & SIGHT BEGIN WITH you!

Plan to join us for a FREE luncheon benefiting Project Smile and Vision, a non-profit organization providing dental and vision care to PSD children, on May 1, 2018.

With the support of local businesses, individuals, and organizations, Project Smile provides imperative dental and vision services to children living in dental pain or poor sight in the Poudre School District. Join us for this free luncheon to learn more about Project Smile and Vision and support our mission.

The luncheon is free, we simply ask you RSVP for the luncheon to help us provide enough food for all attendees and to consider donating to support our mission.

Date: May 1, 2018

Time: 11:30 AM – 1:00 PM

Location: Drake Centre Fort Collins – 802 W Drake Rd, Fort Collins, CO 80526

Can't make the lunch? No problem! Donate directly to Project Smile and Vision.

Please feel free to forward this email on to anyone who may be interested in joining us and supporting our work.

A RETIREE'S LAST TRIP TO COSTCO!!

Yesterday I was at Costco buying a large bag of Purina dog chow for my loyal pet, Owen, the Wonder Dog and was in the check-out line when a woman behind me asked if I had a dog. What did she think I had, an elephant?

So because I'm retired and have little to do, on impulse I told her that no, I didn't have a dog. I was starting the Purina Diet again. I added that I probably shouldn't, because I ended up in the hospital last time, but that I'd lost 50 pounds before I awakened in an intensive care ward with tubes coming out of most of my orifices and IVs in both arms.

I told her that it was essentially a Perfect Diet, and that the way that it works is to load your pants pockets with Purina Nuggets and simply eat one or two every time you feel hungry. The food is nutritionally complete, (certified), so it works well and I was going to try it again. (I have to mention here that practically everyone in line was now enthralled with my story.)

Horrified, she asked if I ended up in intensive care because the dog food poisoned me. I told her no. I had stopped to pee on a fire hydrant and a car hit me.

Well, I thought the guy behind her was going to have a heart attack he was laughing so hard.

Costco won't let me shop there anymore. Better watch what you ask retired people. They have all the time in the world to think of crazy things to say.

DO YOU KNOW WHY WE CALL SOMETHING CLEAN, "SPIC AND SPAN?"

It's a contraction of a Middle English phrase used to describe a new or refurbished ship. "Spic and span new" referred to a ship with shiny new nails (spics or "spikes") and new wood (span new meaning "new chips of wood"). The phrase was shortened eventually to spick and span and was forever altered by the commercial success of the cleaner Spic and Span.
