My tentative travel plans for this year...

I have been in many places, but I've never been in Cahoots. Apparently, you can't go alone. You have to be in Cahoots with someone.

I've also never been in Cognito. I hear no one recognizes you there.

I have, however, been in Sane. They don't have an airport; you have to be driven there. I have made several trips there thanks to my friends, family and work.

I would like to go to Conclusions, but you have to jump, and I'm not too much on physical activity anymore.

I have been in Decisive...at least I think so.

I have also been in Doubt, but it makes me uncomfortable. So I try to live by the motto: Often wrong, but never in Doubt.

I've been in Flexible, but only when it was very important to not bend.

Sometimes I'm in Capable, and I go there more often as I'm getting older.

One of my favorite places to be is in Suspense! It really gets the adrenalin flowing and pumps up the old heart! At my age I need all the stimuli I can get!

Sometimes I think I am in Vincible, but life shows me I am not.

People keep telling me I'm in Denial, but I'm certain I've never been there before!

I may have been in Continent, but I don't remember much, except that it is very damp there.

I have been in Deep-doo-doo many times; the older I get, the easier it is to get there.

PLEASE DO YOUR PART! You can do your bit by sharing this with at least one unstable person. My job is done! You might want to adopt this rule for your everyday behavior: "Life is short. Smile while you still have your teeth." From one unstable person to another: I hope everyone is happy in your head - we're all doing pretty well in mine!

OBITUARY FOR ORVILLE RIDDLE—Orv was a long-time active member of our club.

Orville Riddle, 92, of Severance, CO, passed away April 13, 2018. He was born March 24, 1926 in Denver, Colorado, to Orval Marion Hayes Riddle and Zella Mae Rogers. He spent his childhood years in Denver and attended West High School. He enlisted in the U.S. Navy during WWII and served as an aviation radioman in the Aleutian Islands from April of 1943 through December 1945. Upon returning he attended Colorado Teacher's College, in Greeley, Colorado on the GI bill where he got his degree in Fine Arts. In 1956 he completed his master's degree. While in college he met and married Betty Ruth Bader. After graduation, he and Betty moved to Fort Collins and Orville began teaching in Poudre School District in 1950. They raised a family consisting of three daughters and two sons. During his teaching career, Orville taught fine arts at Fort Collins High School, then Industrial Arts at Lincoln Junior High, Leshar Junior High and Cache La Poudre Junior High. He coached girls' softball and volleyball and boy's golf. Upon retiring from Poudre School District in 1981, Orville worked until 1991 as a superintendent for Terrell Custom Homes.

Orville and Betty served as volunteers in many capacities. They assisted in a church service at Spring Creek Health Care Center, logged hundreds of hours working at the Colorado Welcome Center, delivered groceries to shut-ins, and served at Westminster Presbyterian and First Presbyterian Churches. Orville also participated in Kiwanis, Elks and PREA.

Orville and Betty enjoyed traveling and took advantage of many of the Elderhostel trips (now called Road Scholar) that included classes with sight-seeing, as well as visiting family and watching golf tournaments. An impactful trip he took in later years was the Honor Flight to Washington, D.C. to see the World War II Memorial and the other memorials.

An avid sportsman, Orville loved golfing, fishing, softball, bowling, and water fowl hunting. He and Betty attended sporting events for children, grandchildren, and even great grandchildren.

Orville is preceded in death by his parents, his wife, his brother Ray Eldon Riddle, sister Maxine E. Riddle, and brothers Roe Rogers Riddle, Don Allen Riddle and Verl Lee Riddle. He is survived by his children, Bonnie Schilling (Tim), of Severance; Jean Boyd (Arnie), of Chapman, Kansas; Marian Hall (Doug), of Fort Collins; Andy Riddle (Marci), of Severance; and Bill Riddle (Kodi), of Cave Creek, Arizona; along with many grandchildren and great-grandchildren.

Please make donations to Pathways Hospice.
