I just want to make sure that you received the message about our move dates and how it affects your Kiwanis group volunteering at the Food Bank.

Our warehouse will be closed May 14 - June 1. And all the future warehouse volunteer shifts, starting with your June 6 date, will be at our new facility: 5706 Wright Dr, Loveland. Enter from Earhart Rd, turn on to Wright Dr. and park in the volunteer lot. Follow signs to the volunteer entrance.

We really appreciate your ongoing support of the Food Bank in our efforts to feed those in need in Larimer County. Please let me know if you have any questions! Thank you!!

AAADD --KNOW THE SYMPTOMS
PLEASE READ!

Thank goodness there's a name for this disorder.
Somehow I feel better even though I have it!!

A.A.A.D.D.

Age Activated Attention Deficit Disorder.

This is how it manifests:

I decide to water my garden.

As I turn on the hose in the driveway, I look over at my car and decide it needs washing. As I start toward the garage, I notice mail on the porch table that I brought up from the mail box earlier.

I decide to go through the mail before I wash the car. I lay my car keys on the table, put the junk mail in the garbage can under the table, and notice that the can is full.

So, I decide to put the bills back on the table and take out the garbage first. But then I think, since I'm going to be near the mailbox when I take out the garbage anyway, I may as well pay the bills first.

I take my check book off the table, and see that there is only one check left. My extra checks are in my desk in the study, so I go inside the house to my desk where I find the can of Coke I'd been drinking. I'm going to look for my checks, but first I need to push the Coke aside so that I don't accidentally knock it over. The Coke is getting warm, and I decide to put it in the refrigerator to keep it cold.

As I head toward the kitchen with the Coke, a vase of flowers on the counter catches my eye-they need water. I put the Coke on the counter and discover my reading glasses that I've been searching for all morning.

I decide I better put them back on my desk, but first I'm going to water the flowers.

I set the glasses back down on the counter, fill a container with water and suddenly spot the TV remote. Someone left it on the kitchen table.

I realize that tonight when we go to watch TV, I'll be looking for the remote, but I won't remember that it's on the kitchen table, so I decide to put it back in the den where it belongs, but first I'll water the flowers.

I pour some water in the flowers, but quite a bit of it spills on the floor. So, I set the remote back on the table, get some towels and wipe up the spill. Then, I head down the hall trying to remember what I was planning to do.

At the end of the day:

The car isn't washed

The bills aren't paid

There is a warm can of Coke sitting on the counter

The flowers don't have enough water,

There is still only 1 check in my check book,

I can't find the remote

I can't find my glasses,

And I don't remember what I did with the car keys.

Then, when I try to figure out why nothing got done today, I'm really baffled because I know I was busy all day, and I'm really tired.

I realize this is a serious problem, and I'll try to get some help for it, but first I'll check my e-mail.

Don't laugh -- if this isn't you yet, your day is coming!!

THE GOLDEN K LEGACY.....

An old man was traveling a lone highway and came at evening, cold and gray, to a chasm deep and wide, through which there flowed a sullen tide. The old man crossed in the twilight dim, for the sullen stream held no fear for him. He turned when we reached the other side, and built a bridge to span the tide.

"Old man!", cried a fellow pilgrim near, "Why waste your strength with your building here? Your journey will end with the ending day, and you never again will pass this way. You have crossed the chasm deep and wide, why build a bridge at eventide?"

The builder raised his old gray head. "Good friend, on the path I have come," he said, "There followeth after me today a youth whose feet will pass this way. This stream which has meant naught to me, to that fair-haired boy may a pitfall be. He, too, must cross in the twilight dim. Good friend, I am building this bridge for him."
