GROUP DISCUSSION. Using the Rampart Range Kiwanis budget to make his points, Treasurer Rex Kramer led us in “Reading Financial Statements.” He joked his presentation was “otherwise known as Accounting 101,” and about “keeping track of stuff.” Each transaction results in two entries—one in balance and one in the income and expense statement. The balance sheet is “the heart of accounting.” He led us through, item by item, all assets and liabilities with side comments for questions and clarification. A special thanks to Rex for filling this job for our club through the years.

Today’s donations were for Salvation Army.
