BOARD MEETING/NEWS:

Donations were for Salvation Army. Belenda Cornelius summarized success of September 9 “What If . . .” Festival downtown, promoting it as an annual division-wide event. Rex Kramer commented Manitou Club and their Key Clubbers at festival “were great.” Belenda proposed home schooling and USO services to families as future program possibilities. Rex also suggested “Home Front Cares.” Al Ziegler will contact other clubs about collaborating on fund raising, beginning with RMD Executive Administrator Harry Brandon. We started a conversation about our club merging with another area group, since our membership has dwindled. (Despite Herculean efforts by Past President Rick Couch with membership drives, outreach programs, publicity, etc.). Harry B. needs to be involved in outlining procedures. Jack Cooley reported Rampart Key Club is trick-or-treating for UNICEF, decorating boxes for a Marion House clothing drive, making posters for a car wash, and combining with Student Council. He also mentioned a “Trunk or Treat” project for kids.
