March 27, 2018

Note from your editors: This issue covers two weeks of club meetings. Thanks to Al Ziegler for taking notes in our absence at the March 20th discussion session.

MARCH 20th DISCUSSION/NEWS. Donations were for Salvation Army. Belenda Cornelius reported on the Key Club Rally hosted by Dawn White March 15. Recent guest Katrina Rossi, who worked with Key Clubs in Florida, also attended. Discussion ensued about costs for Youth Leadership Conferences. Training faculty advisors will be discussed at a future Division meeting. Al Ziegler participated in the St. Patrick's Day parade representing Pikes Peak Soap Box Derby. Belenda reviewed the "Go-Baby-Go" project she attended March 17th at Chapel Hills Mall where handicapped kids constructed and drove electrically powered cars. Belenda considered our starting a Builder's Club next school year. Jack Cooley reported no Doug Wasson scholarship applications have yet been received from Rampart High School. Belenda suggested having a speaker from the Warrior Games (Barry Grossman?) to be held at the Air Force Academy.

MARCH 27th BOARD MEETING/NEWS. Donations were for Silver Key. Thanks Al Ziegler and Jack Cooley for awarding 39 BUG pins at Mesa Elementary March 22. (See photo). District Attorney Dan May expressed appreciation for the March 26 opioid presentations at the Not One More Child Coalition meeting March 26. Rick Couch, who first brought the pair together, commented Mark Conte and Jeff Watson "do an excellent job," and suggested developing slides to accompany future presentations. He also urged us to check out the One More Child video online. Rex Kramer and Al will work with Monument Hill member Russ Broshous for a club financial review later in spring. Caroline Vulgamore will order a tablecloth to display club materials at future events. Our membership brochure needs updating, including an application form. Harry Vulgamore will submit photos and check with District 11 about printing costs. Rick will contact Nancy Wiehagen for help and talk to Kinko's. Rick will also ask R.F. Smith if Rampart High is among the "30 Front Range Schools" included in the Youth Leadership Conference June 25-29, at UCCS. Bert West is promoting donations for the Kiwanis playground at Ronald McDonald House.
