Welcome to our guests: Dick and Nancy Ferner, Barry Bunting, and Sasha & Sam Roshek

Happy Dollars

Birthdays & Anniversaries

Chrissy Stapleford's dad (Rick Reason) is 60!!

Nancy Ferner—oh sure, remember all her kids and grandkids birthdays! Well she's baaaaack!, this time with 4 birthdays: a daughter, 2 granddaughters and a daughter-in-law!

Pat Hyslop's sister and brother-in-law are celebrating their 25th anniversary.

Bob Campbell's son, Matthew (who has been helping hand with Kiwanis for years!) turns 25!

Happy Dollars

Jeff Smith had $20 for the convention and he said that it was completely silent when Bert spoke and no one was using their cell phones! Now that is saying something!

Mark Rabaut, our member, AND the International Foundation President, said that Bert did a remarkable job, and that his smile in the end won everyone over!

Mark and Teo Leoni, actress, at the Toronto Convention!

Judy Drake had happy dollars for Bert and for Connie Sim's leading of last week's meeting. And she had a little "kiss" for everyone who had their nametag on this morning!

Jean Rodeck and Kathy Bergin went to the tea last week at the Senior Center and wore the hats they modeled for us today!

Kathy Bergin is also happy for her recent family reunion and highly recommends the YMCA Camp at Rocky Mountain National Park for such events!

Jean Rodeck is also happy about the 100th anniversary of the National Park system and says there are thousands of dedicated men and women who are working in our parks! She is also happy and proud of her son, Bert for winning!

Cheryl Steen is happy that Bert won, and that she has had a busy week with Donkey Derby Days, the Hill Climb and cleaning out dead bushes in the ditches around her business (with the help of Annie Welles and a neighbor of hers!) Cheryl is happy that they will be visiting her daughter and that her son and his wife (who is "with child!") are coming to visit!

Brenda Crane is only moderately happy that she got to babysit her new granddaughter (because she cried the whole time!)

Bill Miller, who has been doing the grand parenting shtick for some time now is happy that he could be here today! Bill is happy too, that Barbara Berger has agreed to tackle our website! Yayyyy!!!

Renee Bunting had $5 for Connie Sims running last week's meeting. She is also happy that her elusive hubby, Barry is here. And we have proof that he exists because he came today, and here is a picture, so we can remember what he looks like!

BERT WINS IN TORONTO!

Bert and Sandy West celebrated their 31st anniversary in Toronto, however, poor Sandy got very sick on the trip, and after an ER visit when they got home, she is improving!

Bert is happy that after all the campaigning, he won the election in Toronto and is now a Kiwanis International Trustee! Yay! Bert donated $100 happy dollars to the Foundation! We are all so proud that he won. If you would like to see and hear the last powerful words of his speech, go to this link: <https://www.facebook.com/upkiwanis/videos/1235108529862444/>

He said it was exciting to see all the people in his purple campaign shirts, plus there were many buttons handed out as well!

Connie Sims and Carl Anderson and George Drake all put in happy dollars for Bert. George said when Bert joined the Ute Pass Kiwanis, he remembers thinking Bert is so young to have done all things he had already done with the Kiwanis organization. George thought he may have been destined for the role he has now taken on!

Tom Martinez had a good time in Toronto and said it was fun to be part of Bert's entourage, and then he said something about bar tabs?

Tom is also happy that Claire Elaina (his granddaughter to be) will be born this Saturday!!!

Jason Roshek handed out more Bert pins and he is $20 happy that he got to see "Jewel" at the convention! He is most proud of Bert! Jason said he got a text message from John Schaefer at the convention which read, "I knew I should have bought into Crown Royal stock, before the convention."

New category for the RMD awards? The Kiwanis President that changes shirts (in the meeting) more often than any other!

Ace of Spades: Rita Randolph & Nancy Ferner drew. No winners! Pot is over $300 & 4 cards left!!!!
